Gentlemen: I have an old relic of the Harrison campaign a copper piece about the size of a half dollar. On one side there is engraven a log cabin supporting the flag and beneath this is the word Tippecanoe. On the other side is a fac-simile of Major General William H. Harrison born 1773

I imagine this may possibly be the only one of its existance and might interest you. It is an attractive piece in good condition except for a very small neat puncture

Yours
Mrs. L. P. Richards

Dear Madam:

Your letter to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, has been turned over to us for reply. Your political token of William Henry Harrison is not rare. A great many of these were made and they are not uncommon. Your piece is worth about twenty-five to fifty cents.

Yours very truly,

Curator.
